

HARNESS RACING BC DEFINITIONS

B.C. BRED..... shall be defined as a horse that has been foaled in British Columbia out of a mare owned or leased by a British Columbia resident at the time of foaling. In the case of a mare leased from other than a British Columbia resident, the lease must be for a term of at least two (2) years and a copy of the lease must be filed with Harness Racing BC Society.

B.C. OWNED .... shall be defined as a horse registered with Standardbred Canada at the time of nomination to a British Columbia resident with no majority interest owned by a non-resident of British Columbia.

B.C. SIRE ..... shall be defined as sired by a stallion which offered a breeding service in British Columbia for the entire mating season the qualifying horse was conceived. The stallion must be owned or leased by a British Columbia resident and registered with Harness Racing BC for the mating season above mentioned. If the stallion is leased, a copy of the lease must be filed with Harness Racing BC.

B.C. RESIDENT.....shall be defined as a person who has maintained a bonafide principle residence in British Columbia for a period of not less than 200 days immediately preceding the qualifying race, or in the case of a broodmare date of foaling. Only Canadian citizens and those persons with landed immigrant status are included in this interpretation.

If the owner is a partnership, stable or corporation and the majority interest in that partnership, stable or corporation is owned by a person or persons who are not residents of British Columbia as described above, that partnership, stable or corporation will be deemed not to be a British Columbia resident.
